Interesting Exercises at the Fourth Street

The opening of the Sunday-school room of the Fourth Street M. E. Church, which has been ecarpeted and renovated, was made the occasion last evening of a very pleasant, profitable reunior of the members of the school and their friends There were also present several of the pastors of Methodist churches in other parts of the city and those formerly conceted with the school, both in the capacity of teachers and scholars. The Sunday-school room was brilliantly lighted up, and in its new dress presented a cosy and attractive appearance. The assistant superintendent, Mr. T. B. Stahl, presided, and the exercises during the even-ing were interspersed with fine music rendered by choir under the direction of Mr. George the choir under the direction of Mr. George Fordham, After prayer by the pastor, Rev. George V. Leech, the superintendent of the school, Mr. Joseph Webb, gavel an exceedingly interesting account of the early days of the school, and in this connection he indulged in reminiscences of the former pastors, which included such names as Lanahan, Sikes, McElfresh, and others. He said that the history of the school went back to nearly the beginning of the century, as it was one of the oldest in the city. The records of the early years were very meagre, and he had to depend largely upon the personal recollections of Brother Crandall. The first attemnt

TO START A SUNDAY SCHOOL

east of the Capitol was made in the year 1819. A man by the name of Winn started a school in Masonic Hail, on Virginia avenue, near Fourth street.
He was a Fresbyterian, and the Methodists in that vicinity were desirous of having a Sunday school of their own. This was not accomplished until 1827, when a Sunday school was organized in a frame butiling on the present site by Messrs. S.
S. Briggs, W. S. Wallace, L. A. Newman, and others. There is little known of the school during the year 1827, when Brother Crandall became superintendent, During his term of office the children went out frequently in the streets in processions, and an old gentleman by the name of Nathan Wright became very much interested in the school from seeing the children, in the streets.
At his death he left the school a legacy of 809 a year, which is still received. The speaker then went on to note the progress made from year to year in the school, both in members and spiritual knowledge. At the present time the school numbered 49s scholars and forty-seven officers and teachers. Addresses were then made by Revs. R.
N. Barr, B. G. W. Reid, and others.

THE LUTHERAN SYNOD.

Election of Officers-Reports Presented-Parochial Matters. The second day's session of the Lutheran Synod of Maryland commenced yesterday at nine o'clock at St. Paul's Church, Rev. L. A. Mann, the president, in the chair. Revs. O. C. Roth and J. U. Asper were received as advisory members. The annual report of the president was read. An election of officers was had, Reys. J. B. Keller, S. A. Hedges, and Dr. J. C. Bush being appointed tellers. Rev. S. Domer, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's Church, was elected president; Rev. Victor Muller, of Leitersburg, Md., secretary, and W. H. James, of the First Lutheran Church of Baltimore, treasurer. The synod accepted the of Baltimore, treasurer. The synod accepted the favitation of the resident pastors to pay their respects to the President of the United States to-day at two o'clock p. m., and Dr. Butler was appointed to introduce the members. Rev. W. H. Settlemeyer made a report on the subject of parochial matters, which was made the order of business for this morning. Rev. Dr. Pitzer, of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. Manhart, of the Susquehanna Lutherma Synod, were introduced.

At the afternoon session much routine business was transacted and the regular committees were announced. Rev. David Wills, chaplain United States army, and Rev. Mr. Mendor, of the Baptist Church, were admitted as advisory members. The report of the committee to prepare a basis for statistical reports of communicants was taken up and discussed at considerable length.

At the evening session there was a free discussion in reference to the manner of submitting parochial report, and Professor Bikle spoke on the subject of education.

Meeting at Cosmopolitan Hall-The Other by the Cold Sunp. The sudden drop in the mercury within the past twenty-four hours has inaugurated a boom in the clothing trade that gave the utterly tter young men who officiate in the leading es day's work. Realizing that the time had come to rearrange his wardrobe, the fashion reporter of THE REVULTION took a glance at the stocks displayed. The first establishment visited was that of where there was a rush of customers. Among the garments that explivated the seribe's eye was the celebrated "Foxhall" overcoat. This wrap will commend itself to the newspaper fraternity, as it has a delicate drab side for religious meetings and a loud check on the reverse front that will always secure the wearer a front seat at a cock light or a horse race. The stock at this establishment is large enough to fit any sized man, be he a ninety-five or a 230 pounder.

AT B. BOBINSON'S the display of youths' clothing was enough to make the visitor wish he was a boy some more. There was every phase of adolescence represented, and the well-filled counters and shelves run the gamut from the first pants of the five-year-old to the "too-too" garments of the youth who affects a jaybird sack anis and a pole cap.

CARROLL INSTITUTE. It Decides to Go to Yorktown-The Free

Night School. The regular weekly meetings of this popular association were resumed last evening with a large attendance of members. The president, Mr. John T. Fallon, occupied the chair, and Mr. Frank John T. Fallon, occupied the chair, and Mr. Frank N. Devereux acted as secretary. Ten new members were proposed, as follows: H. G. Goddard, R. F.
Harvey, George B. Maher, John N. Pistorio, Edward O'Hare, B. J. Coyle, Bernard V. Simms, W.
H. Monogue, Edwin H. Neumeyer, and John Dowling. The chair stated that he had received from Right Rev. Bishop Keane, bishop of Richmond, an invitation for the Institute to attend the mond, an invitation for the Institute to attend the ceremonies at Yorktown on Sunday, the 16th inst. The invitation was accepted. Announcement was made of the death of President Garfield, as also of the death of Rev. L. A. Morgan, formerly assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, and an honorary member of the Institute. After appropriate remarks by the president and Messrs, Mallet, Murphy, Dr. McArdie, Hannan, Brosnan, and others, committees were appointed in each case to prepare suitable resolutions and report at the next meeting. The Institute then, in respect to the death of President Garfield, adjourned. The free night school of the Institute began its sessions on Monday last, and a goodly number of pupils were in attendance. The night school opens this year under most favorable circumstances, many improvements having been made in its management, including the replacing of the old deaks by new ones. The library has been furnished with new chairs and tables, and altogether many new improvements may be noted throughout the rooms.

THE PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATIONS.

Wing. A meeting of the newly-organized Pennsylvania Republican Association in the Dia crict of Columbia" was held last night at Cosmo politan Hall, the president, Mr. E. W. Oyster, in the chair. After reading the minutes of the last meeting Mr. Hirsh moved an amendment to the constitution by striking the president and secre-tary from membership on the executive commit-tee. This led to a short debate, which was followed by a reading of the constitution, severa persons objecting to becoming members until they had heard it. When the reading had been completed propositions for membership were declared in order and the following were proposed, paid their initiation fee, and were elected; W. H. THE COMMITTEE ON TRANSFORTATION

Was fixed at three members, and Mr. J. A.
Thompson, Colonel F. A. Seeley, and Mr. W. A. Shori were appointed. It was also decided that the political committee should consist of one member from each district. On notion of Mr. Hirsh it was decided to send the chairman of the transportation committee to interview the chairman of the State Central Committee on the subject of transportation. Mr. Thompson was invited to address the association on the political status of the State.
He said there had been some trouble there, but the tide was running in the right direction. He knew this was what was called an off year, and the year in which the Democrats are most sanguine, but the Republicans had never faltered, but marched right into victory. In his own district he was satisfied that the vote polled would be heavier than that at the presidential election. Referring to the new organization, he said he did not know any reason why there should not be half a dozen Fennsylvania organizations in the city if the people choose to organize them. "His experience was that small bodies could do the best work. There was room for all, and from what he had seen of this meeting be could say that it had showed more genuine spirit and push than any he had ever attended, and they were bound to successed. In conclusion he said he would proceed immediately to Philadelphia for the purpose of securing transportation.
A vote of thanks was tendered the press for courtessies extended. The receipts were announced at $74.50, and the meeting adjourned until next Tuesday evening.

THE COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION

The Pennsylvania Republican Associa-tion, presided over by Mr. John S. Blair, has received from the State Central Committee of Fenn-sylvania a complete registry of the voters of the clty of Philadelphia, with the promise that the list of the country voters will be forwarded in a few days. The lists are in the possession of the political committee, where they can be inspected MUSICAL EVENTS.

Grand Features of Tuesday's Programm at the Oriole in Baltimore Next Week. While all three days of the Oriote Baltimore next week will be replete with attrac-tions, the particular features of each day have their particular admirers, and in this the pro-their particular admirers, are remarkably successful While all three days of the Oriole at gramme as announced is a remarkably successful one. The lovers of music of the highest standard one. The lovers of music of the highest standard are enthusiastic over the principal events of Tucsday, embracing as they do musical feasts of the richest character. Every detail has been perfected for the grand open-air concert by Gilmore's Band, numbering sixty-five pieces, at washington monument Tuesday afternoon, commencing at three c'clock. The programme, as arranged, will be as follows: I, overture, "Zubel," Weber: 2, euphonium solo, air and variations, Beilini, Signor Rafflayolo; 3, Rhapsadie Hongroise, No. 2, Liszt: 4, cornet solo, "Cleopatra Polka," Demare, Mr. Benjamin C. A. Lefebre: 9, paraphrase, "Maryland, My Maryland," Heinemann: 10, march militaire, "Formoso," Gungl; new national anthem, "Columbia," Gilmore. The irrepressible Gilmore will conduct in person. An extensive grand stand has been erected for the accommodation of those present at the concert, which will unquestionably prove one of the rarest musical treats ever offered in Maryland. At night Gilmore's grand organization will head the glorious Oriole pageant, and among the other bands in line will be the famous Marine, of this city, and the noted band of the Second United States Artillery. There will in all be over a dozen bands in the pageant. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, appreciating in advance the great demand that will be made upon the road Tuesday, has fixed a schedule for the running of twenty-six trains that day from Washington to Baltimore on and about every half hour. The greater number of these trains will be ample in number to accommodate all, and at night they will run every half hour until ten a. m. are enthusiastic over the principal events of number to accommodate all, and at night will run every half hour until ten a. m.

The little card giving the schedule of trains each day and the programme of the Oriole festivities just issued by the Baltimore and Onio is a capital thing. It is just the size for the pocket, and one side gives the time-table in fall, and on the other the programme for the three days, together with the line of march for both Monday afternoon and Tuesday night. There is much other valuable information given, and the card, which is for general distribution, can be had at any of the offices of the Baltimore and Ohio in the city. Equal Division.
